ANNOUNCING A PRESENTATION OPEN TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

On the
THE AFGHAN NATIONAL POLICE
(Problems and Successes)
17 April: 1615-1900
Science II Room 109 (West wing, ground floor)
Presenter: Fin JOHNSON
Former Aide to the Afghan Police General in charge of Criminal Investigations

Will or can the ANP succeed and how, given its history, tribal and religious realities, along with international involvement and a host of related challenges?

Also:
Opportunities for well paid overseas contract positions for retired American Law Enforcement Professionals
THE AFGHAN NATIONAL POLICE...
Mr. JOHNSON is a former Mentor to the Chief of the Criminal Investigation Dept., Afghan National Police, Ministry of Interior. Mr. JOHNSON is a retired Police Lieutenant and former FBI special agent with 30 years of experience in various aspects of law enforcement, security and public safety.

Mr. JOHNSON’s knowledge and understanding of the volatile situation in Afghanistan bring a sense of reality to any discussion on Afghanistan, and he is simply superb with his ability to describe complex issues in a language people can understand. Mr. JOHNSON is a true “boots on the ground” law enforcement professional who is willing to share his personal insights and experiences.

The event is sponsored by the Law Enforcement Option of the Department of Criminology, CSU Fresno. The Law Enforcement Option has the largest student enrollment with over 700 majors, followed by the corrections, victimology and forensic and behavioral science options. The ANP presentation will be followed by a reception in the nearby criminology department office suite. A map of Science II where the presentation will be held, and of adjacent parking areas, is depicted below.

To indicate that you will attend and/or for additional information, email or call Dr. H.O. Schweizer haralds@csufresno.edu Tel. 559-278-8880 or contact the criminology department at 559-278-2305.